

Social Science

Wittgensteinian Philosophy and Advaita Vedanta: A Survey of the Parallels

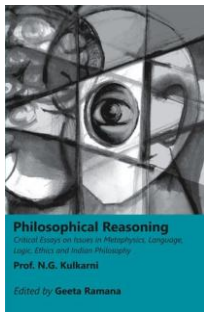

Author: Dr. Ravindra K.S. Choudhary

Publisher: DK Printworld

Overview: The philosophy of Wittgenstein and the Advaita Vedanta philosophy are two philosophical traditions far apart in time and cultural space, yet they possess striking similarities. This volume painstakingly research Wittgenstein's works and the basic texts of Vedanta, the Upanishads, the Brahmasutra and the Bhagavad-Gita, delving deep into their similarities.

Acc. No: 102655

Call No: 100 CHO-W

Philosophical Reasoning: Critical Essays on Issues in Metaphysics, Language, Logic, Ethics and Indian Philosophy

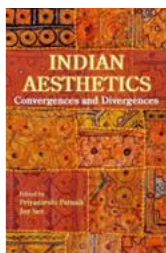

Author: Geeta Ramana

Publisher: Suryodaya Books

Overview: Geeta Ramana's Philosophical Reasoning curates the intellectual legacy of Prof. N.G. Kulkarni, offering a panoramic defence of philosophical inquiry across four major domains. By bridging analytic rigor with classical Indian systems like Nyāya and Yoga, the volume demonstrates how minute logical details coalesce into a coherent "big picture" of reason, morality, and identity.

Acc. No: 102633

Call No: 110 KUL-P

Indian Aesthetics: Convergences and Divergences

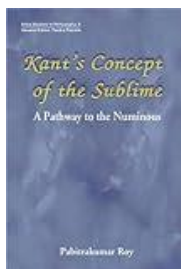

Editor: Priyadarshi Patnaik, Joy Sen

Publisher: D.K. Printworld

Overview: A collection of fifteen scholarly articles, this volume talks about the development of convergences and divergences in Indian aesthetics under two broad topics. Theoretical Explorations and Applications be it cinema, dance, drama, music, literature or sculpture.

Acc. No: 102621

Call No: 111.850954 IND-I

Kant's Concept of the Sublime: A Pathway to the Numinous

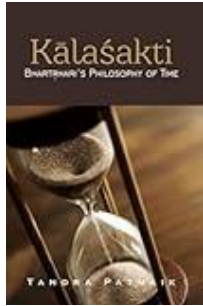

Author: Pabitrakumar Roy

Publisher: D.K. Printworld

Overview: This work focuses on Kant's concern with the problem of moral motivation. It argues that there is a gap between objectively conceived principle and subjective motivation, and aesthetic experience of the sublime phenomenon of utmost existential importance fills this gap.

Acc. No: 102624

Call No: 111.85 ROY-K

Kalashakti: Bhartrihari's Philosophy of Time

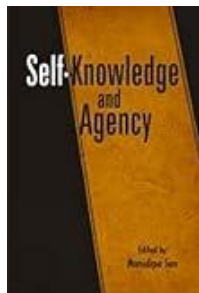

Author: Tandra Patnaik

Publisher: D.K. Printworld

Overview: The volume delves into Bhartrihari's conception of Time as power (Kalashakti). Time as the power (Kalashakti) serves as an important conceptual tool to maintain Bhartrihari's non-dualistic position, both in the level of ontology as well as semantics. Kala serves as an important conceptual link between unity and diversity; unchanged and the changing.

Acc. No: 102623

Call No: 115 PAT-K

Self-Knowledge and Agency

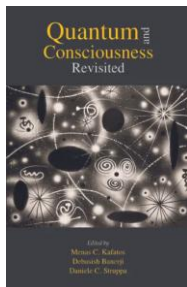

Author: Manidipa Sen

Publisher: Decent books

Overview: Manidipa Sen's Self-Knowledge and Agency is a cross-cultural philosophical inquiry into the first-person perspective, bridging epistemology and ethics. By analysing the interplay between consciousness, rationality, and intentionality, the volume explores how human beings constitute themselves as both subjects of experience and moral agents in the world.

Acc. No: 102644

Call No: 126 SEL-S

Quantum and Consciousness Revisited

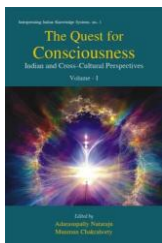

Author: Debashish Banerji, Daniele C. Struppa and Menas C. Kafatos

Publisher: D.K. Printworld

Overview: Consciousness Revisited revives the philosophical inquiry of physics' founding fathers, bridging modern quantum mechanics with non-materialist theories of mind. Through interpretations like QBism and Transactional Analysis, it posits a participatory universe where consciousness is not an accidental byproduct but a fundamental constituent of reality.

Acc. No: 102636

Call No: 126 QUA-Q

The Quest for Consciousness: Indian and Cross-Cultural Perspectives Vol. 1

Author: Munmun Chakraborty and Adarasupally Nataraju

Publisher: D.K. Printworld

Overview: The book addresses the main theme of the nature of consciousness from a wide-ranging stance and have also taken a step towards establishing a platform for an intense and critical study of Indian theories of consciousness.

Acc. No: 102637

Call No: 128.2 QUE-Q

Rumors

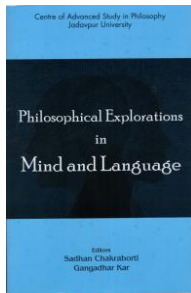

Author: Mladen Dolar

Publisher: Polity

Overview: Mladen Dolar's Rumors provides a profound philosophical investigation into the shadow-fighting nature of hearsay, tracing its power from the trial of Socrates to the digital age. Dolar argues that rumors represent a "rumorization of the social," where the proliferation of communication paradoxically threatens the stability of the social fabric through the viral spread of baseless but devastating narratives.

Acc. No: 102893

Call No: 121 DOL-R

Philosophical Explorations in Mind and Language

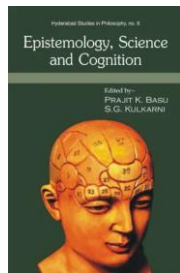

Author: Sadhan Chakraborti

Publisher: D K Printworld

Overview: This volume aims at exploring certain philosophical truths relating to the syntax and the semantics of the language. The essays are written from the Western and Indian philosophical perspectives such as that of Descartes, logical positivists, Quine, Davidson, cognitive scientists and of Navya-Nyāya, Vaiśeṣika, Ṛgveda, Vedāṅga, Mīmāṃsā, Vyākaraṇa and Vedānta.

Acc. No: 102632

Call No: 121.68 PHI-P

Epistemology, Science and Cognition

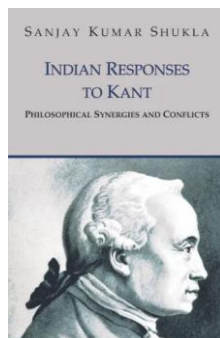

Author: Prajit K. Basu

Publisher: D.K. Printworld

Overview: This book is a collection of research papers focussing on the phenomenon of cognition from the epistemological point of view in the light of the linguistic and the cognitivist shift in philosophy in general and in philosophy of science in particular.

Acc. No: 102616

Call No: 121 EPI-E

Indian Responses to Kant: Philosophical Synergies and Conflicts

Author: Sanjay Kumar Shukla

Publisher: D.K. Printworld

Overview: This volume critically evaluates and maps German philosopher Immanuel Kant's influence on twentieth-century prominent Indian philosophers such as K.C. Bhattacharyya, J.N. Mohanty, T.R.V. Murti, Daya Krishna, among others. Kant, as a revolutionary philosopher, augmented the well-known Copernican Revolution in Western philosophy. Transcendental idealism and empirical realism are the hallmarks of Kant's philosophical thought.

Acc. No: 102622

Call No: 121 SHU-I

Mind and Cognition an Interdisciplinary Sharing: Essays in honour of Amita Chatterjee

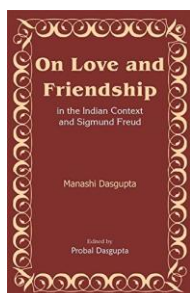

Author: Kuntala Bhattacharya, Smita Sirker and Madhucchanda Sen

Publisher: D.K. Printworld

Overview: This volume, a tribute to Prof. Amita Chatterjee, features the views of forty scholars across the globe on major philosophical areas like Fusion Philosophy, Mind and Cognition, Mind and Perception, Mind and Language, Logic, and Indian Philosophy along with the autobiography of Chatterjee and her response to the contributions of those scholars.

Acc. No: 102625, 102626

Call No: 128.2 MIN-M

On love and friendship in the Indian context and Sigmund Freud

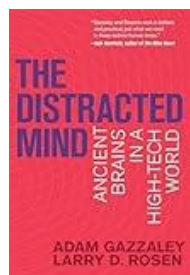

Author: Manashi Dasgupta

Publisher: D.K. Printworld

Overview: Manashi Dasgupta's On Love and Friendship reclaim friendship as an anti-hierarchical crucible essential for democracy and personal accountability. By critiquing the Freudian reduction of friendship to sublimated eros, the author establishes informal seriousness as a unique cognitive space for incubating life projects and fostering mature, non-patriarchal citizenship.

Acc. No: 102631

Call No: 150.1 DAS-O

The Distracted Mind: Ancient Brains in a High-Tech World

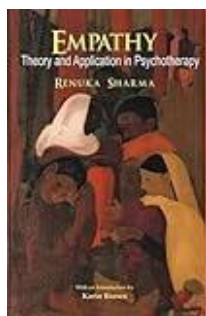

Author: Adam Gazzaley and Larry D. Rosen

Publisher: The MIT Press

Overview: The book reveals the evolutionary mismatch between our primitive information-foraging brains and the high-speed interference of modern technology. By distinguishing between internal distractions and external interruptions, the authors provide a neuroscientific toolkit to strengthen cognitive control and reclaim our attention. Read more.

Acc. No: 102702

Call No: 153.7 GAZ-D

Empathy: Theory and Application in Psychotherapy

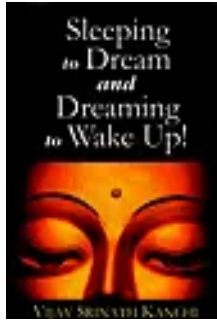

Author: Renuka Sharma

Publisher: D.K. Printworld

Overview: Empathy is quite often misunderstood as sympathy. It has its cognate in the Eastern or contemplative practice of compassion (karuna, metta, krpa) toward another, and also to sorge or care in phenomenological hermeneutics. The book demonstrates the way in which using empathy as a means of diagnosis leads to different, more successful results and course of action in psychoanalysis.

Acc. No: 102615

Call No: 152.41 SHA-E

Sleeping to Dream and Dreaming to Wake Up! - An Ontological and Epistemological Inquiry into the Nature of Dream and Sleep

Author: Vijay Srinath Kanchi

Publisher: D.K. Printworld

Overview: The book is a profound ontological bridge between the subjective "insider's view" of the mystic and the objective data of the neuroscientist. By synthesizing Advaita Vedānta, Vajrayāna Buddhism, and modern lucid dreaming research, Kanchi argues that mastering the transitions between waking, dreaming, and deep sleep is the key to spiritual liberation.

Acc. No: 102645

Call No: 154.63 KAN-S

Evolution of Indian Philosophy

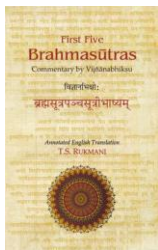

Author: K. Satchidananda Murty

Publisher: D.K. Printworld

Overview: This book focuses on the evolution of philosophy in India with reference to socio-political and economic conditions, through which one can learn that life and thought are invariably interconnected with polity and persons, economy and environment. This book is unique in the sense that it contains a review in the conclusion; and the philosophical heritage has been evaluated in its introduction

Acc. No: 102617

Call No: 181.4 MUR-E

First Five Brahmasūtras: Commentary by Vijñānabhikṣu

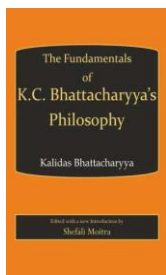

Author: Vijñanabhikṣu

Publisher: D.K. Printworld

Overview: This pioneering translation of Vijñānabhikṣu's Vijñānāmṛtabhāṣya introduces the "Avibhāga-Advaita" (Inseparable Non-Dualism) school, which harmonizes Vedānta with Sāṃkhya-Yoga.

Acc. No: 102619

Call No: 181.48 VIJ-F

Fundamentals of K.C. Bhattacharyya's Philosophy

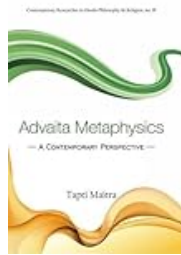

Author: Bhattacharyya, Kalidas

Publisher: D.K. Printworld

Overview: This monograph deals with Krishnachandra Bhattacharyya's epistemic and metaphysical line of thought from the definite to the indefinite, from the objective level to the higher levels of subjectivity, and from association to dissociation or freedom leading to an alternation between knowledge and freedom.

Acc. No: 102620

Call No: 181.4 BHA-F

Advaita Metaphysics: A Contemporary Perspective

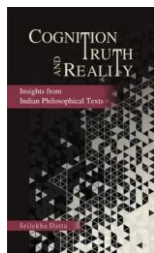

Author: Tapti Maitra

Publisher: DK Printworld

Overview: This volume centres around the formulations of the Advaita theory of monism based on epistemological and logical analysis of knowledge in Adhyasa Bhashya. Thinkers like G.R. Malkani, K.S. Murty and G. Misra offer alternative perspectives in understanding the doctrine of the Upanishads, i.e. the Advaitavada of Shankara.

Acc. No: 102601

Call No: 181.482 MAI-A

Cognition Truth and Reality: Insights from Indian Philosophical Texts

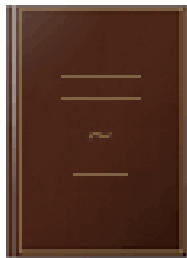

Author: Srilekha Datta

Publisher: D.K. Printworld

Overview: The book addresses various fundamental topics of philosophy in epistemology and metaphysics like doubt, memory, perception, truth and validity, the self, consciousness and universals; and these are explored from the perspective of Indian philosophy.

Acc. No: 102611

Call No: 181.43 DAT-C

The Dasasloki of Sankaracarya with the commentary Siddhanta Bindu

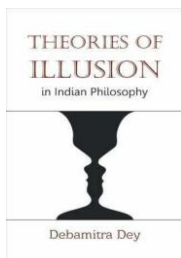

Author: Sarasvati, Madhusudana

Publisher: D.K. Printworld

Overview: The Dasasloki with the Siddhanta Bindu commentary is a foundational text of Advaita Vedanta philosophy.

Acc. No: 102612

Call No: 181.482 SAR-D

Theories of Illusion in Indian Philosophy

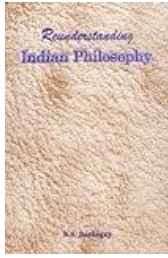

Author: Debamitra Dey

Publisher: D.K. Printworld

Overview: This volume extensively deals with the concept of false cognition, or illusion, and analyses how the Samkhya-Yoga, Buddhist, Nyaya, Mimamsa and Vedanta schools of thought have criticized their opponents to establish their own view from the metaphysical and epistemological standpoints on illusion, along with many more minor theories.

Acc. No: 102648

Call No: 181.4 DEY-T

Reunderstanding Indian Philosophy: Some Glimpses

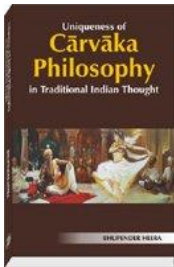

Author: S.S. Barlingay

Publisher: D.K. Printworld

Overview: The book discusses the problems raised by the classical systems like Carvaka, Jain, Buddhism, Nyaya, Vaisesika, Samkhya, Yoga, Purva Mimamsa and Vedanta. It establishes epistemological, metaphysical and axiological significance of Indian philosophy, offering a unique insight.

Acc. No: 102640

Call No: 181.4 BAR-R

Uniqueness of Carvaka Philosophy in Indian Traditional Thought

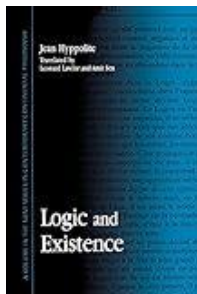

Author: Heera Bhupendra

Publisher: Suryodaya books

Overview: Bhupendra Heera's Uniqueness of Carvaka Philosophy rehabilitates India's ancient materialistic school from centuries of caricature as mere hedonism. By strictly analysing its Perception-only epistemology (Pratyaksha), the work establishes Cārvāka as a rigorous precursor to modern empiricism and a vital, subversive voice in Indian thought.

Acc. No: 102651

Call No: 181.46 HEE-U

Logic and Existence

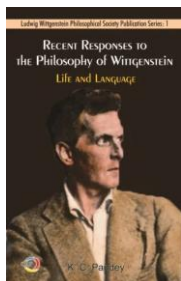

Author: Hyppolite, Jean

Publisher: State University of New York Press

Overview: Jean Hyppolite's Logic and Existence is the definitive bridge between Hegel's phenomenology and his logic, marking the historical shift from humanistic existentialism to the philosophy of difference. By re-evaluating language and the dialectical category, Hyppolite provided the essential framework that both revealed the depths of Hegelianism and enabled the radical departures of Deleuze, Derrida, and Foucault.

Acc. No: 102695

Call No: 193 HYP-L

Recent Responses to the Philosophy of Wittgenstein: Life and Language

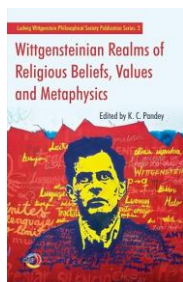

Author: K. C. Pandey

Publisher: D.K. Printworld

Overview: The book gives a fresh interpretation from the perspectives of recent issues raised on life and language in the philosophy of Wittgenstein. The essays contained in this anthology explore philosophical issues that have been raised during recent debates and discussions in Wittgensteinian epistemology, theology, logic, ethics, religion, social science, cultural studies, psychology and language.

Acc. No: 102638

Call No: 192 REC-R

Wittgensteinian Realms of Religious Beliefs, Values and Metaphysics

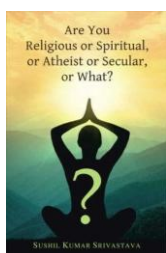

Author: K.C. Pandey

Publisher: DK Printworld

Overview: K.C. Pandey's Wittgensteinian Realms maps the evolution of the Unsayable, tracing how Wittgenstein moved from the silence of the Tractatus to the rich "forms of life" in his later work. The anthology explores how religious belief, ethics, and aesthetics are not logical failures of language, but distinct linguistic practices that define the human experience.

Acc. No: 102656

Call No: 193 WIT-W

Are You Religious or Spiritual, or Atheist or Secular, or What?

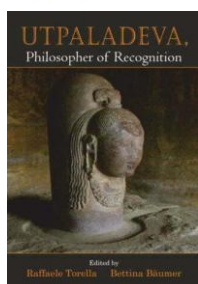

Author: Sushil Kumar Srivastava

Publisher: DK Printworld

Overview: This book targets those persons who seek to learn about and understand the multiple forms of religious or spiritual or secular life, across the globe. It aims to foster mutual understanding, communication and dialogues between persons having different religious, spiritual and secular orientations.

Acc. No: 102603

Call No: 200 SRI-A

Utpaladeva, Philosopher of Recognition

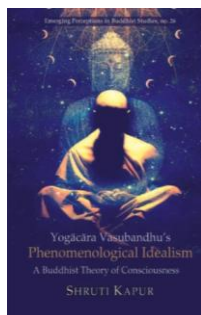

Author: Raffaele Torella and Bettina Baumer

Publisher: DK Printworld

Overview: This volume presents the multifarious aspects of Utpaladeva, not only an outstanding metaphysician and epistemologist, engaged in a strenuous critical dialogue above all with the Buddhist logicians, but also one of the most extraordinary mystical poets of India. For the first time his contribution to poetics and aesthetics has been duly highlighted.

Acc. No: 102652

Call No: 294.5513 UTP-U

Yogacara Vasubandhu's Phenomenological Idealism: A Buddhist Theory of Consciousness

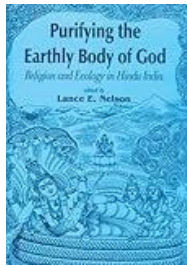

Author: Shruti Kapur

Publisher: D.K. Printworld

Overview: This book is a comparative study of the phenomenology of Yogacara Vasubandhu and that of the German philosopher Edmund Husserl having the focus on the understanding of the deeply inner nature of consciousness or mind. It asserts that the Yogacara philosophy is much richer and comprehensive than the Western phenomenology, particularly the Husserlian phenomenology.

Acc. No: 102657

Call No: 294.392 KAP-Y

Purifying the Earthly Body of God: Religion and Ecology in Hindu India

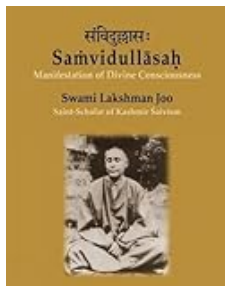

Author: Lance E. Nelson

Publisher: D.K. Printworld

Overview: Examining the relation between religion and ecological concern in Hinduism, the book covers aspects like the ecological implications of pilgrimage, worship of earth and river goddesses, and Vedanta and Tantra theologies. It discusses how traditional ideas affect contemporary Indian thought.

Acc. No: 102635

Call No: 294.5 PUR-P

Samvidullasah: Manifestation of Divine Consciousness: Swami Lakshman Joo (Saint Scholar of Kashmir Saivism) A Centenary Tribute

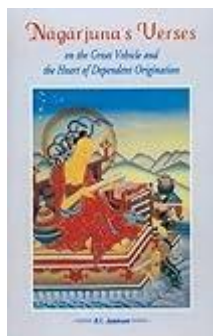

Author: Bettina Sharada Bäumer and Sarla Kumar

Publisher: D.K. Printworld

Overview: This volume is a Birth Centenary tribute to Swami Lakshman Joo Raina (1907-1991), a great saint and scholar of Kashmir, who revived the tradition of Kashmir Shaivism. The articles by scholars, disciples and devotees reflect on his life and work, and on his spiritual influence.

Acc. No: 102643, 102642

Call No: 294.5513092 SAM-S

Nagarjuna's Verses: on the Great Vehicle and the Heart of Dependent Origination

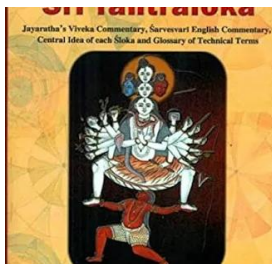

Author: R.C. Jamieson

Publisher: D.K. Printworld

Overview: The volume presents a critical study with English translations of the renowned Buddhist scholar Nagarjuna's works, Mahayanavimsika, Pratiya-samutpadahrdayakarika and Pratiyasamutpada-hrdayavyakhyaana a prose work. While the translations are easy to understand, the comment-aries incorporate study of rare manuscripts like the Dunhuang manu-scripts (eighth-ninth centuries) to thoroughly examine the significance of Nagarjuna's contributions to Buddhist religious philosophy.

Acc. No: 102628

Call No: 294.385 JAM-N

Tantraloka

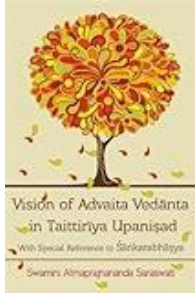

Author: Gupta, Abhinava

Publisher: Indian Mind

Overview: Vol. 1: Introduction: Background, Foundation and critical analysis. Vol. 2: Chapters 1-7. Vol. 3: Chapters 8-13. Vol. 4: Chapters 14-26. Vol. 5: Chapters 27-37.

Acc. No: 102577 - 102581

Call No: 294.5513 GUP-T

Vision of Advaita Vedanta in Taittiriya Upanishad

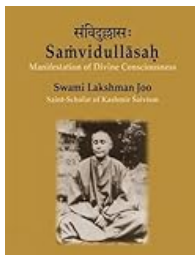

Author: Atmaprajananda Saraswati

Publisher: D.K. Printworld

Overview: This book unveils the vision of Advaita Vedanta in Taittiriya Upanishad with special reference to Shankarabhashya in a unique style, detailing the importance of shabdapramana, along with free translations of three vallis of the Upanishad. It presents the oneness of triangular phenomenon called jiva, jagat and Ishvara from the Advaita Vedanta perspective.

Acc. No: 102653

Call No: 294.59218 SAR-V

Samvidullāṣah: Manifestation of Divine Consciousness

Author: Bettina Sharada Bäumer, Sarla Kumar

Publisher: DK Printworld

Overview: This volume is a Birth Centenary tribute to Swami Lakshman Joo Raina (1907-1991), a great saint and scholar of Kashmir, who revived the tradition of Kashmir Shaivism. The articles by scholars, disciples and devotees reflect on his life and work, and on his spiritual influence.

Acc. No: 102643, 102642

Call No: 294.5513092 SAM-S

Brahman and the World

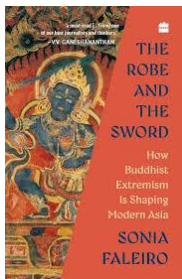

Author: Ashokanath Bhattacharya Sastri

Publisher: D.K. Printworld

Overview: It deconstructs the metaphysical tension between the Upanishadic monism and Bādarāyaṇa's Brahmasūtra. By analysing universal causation and material causality, Sastri evaluates the competing claims of Advaita, Viśiṣṭādvaita, and Bhedābheda to determine the true nature of Brahman's relationship with the cosmos.

Acc. No: 102606

Call No: 294.5921 SAS-B

The Robe and the Sword: How Buddhist Extremism Is Shaping Modern Asia

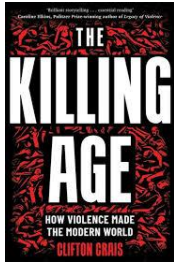

Author: Sonia Faleiro

Publisher: Fourth Estate

Overview: It is a harrowing investigation into the rise of Buddhist militancy across South and Southeast Asia. By tracing the transformation of a faith synonymous with peace into a tool of ethno-nationalist terror, Faleiro exposes the colonial scars and political machinations that have weaponized the saffron robe.

Acc. No: 102667

Call No: 294.3372 FAL-R

The Killing Age: How Violence Made the Modern World

Author: Clifton Crais

Publisher: The University of Chicago Press

Overview: The Killing Age redefines the birth of the modern world not as the Enlightenment or the Anthropocene. He argues that from 1750 to 1900, a lethal convergence of global commerce and mass-scale violence laid the foundations for modern capitalism and the current environmental crisis.

Acc. No: 102587

Call No: 303.609 CRA-K

Sports Studies in India: Expanding the Field

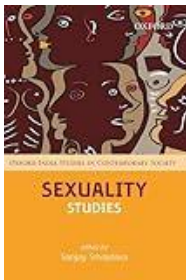

Editor: Padma Prakash and Meena Gopal

Publisher: Oxford University Press

Overview: It establishes a critical sociological framework for analysing the society-state-media nexus through the lens of Indian athleticism. By integrating political economy, gender studies, and popular culture, the volume decodes sports as a mirror of India's evolving social hierarchies and national identity. Read more.

Acc. No: 102570

Call No: 306.4830954 SPO-S

Sexuality Studies

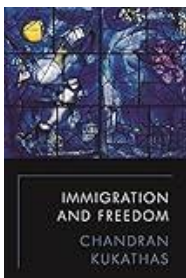

Editor: Sanjay Srivastava

Publisher: Oxford University Press

Overview: Sexuality Studies provides a definitive analytical foundation for the study of desire and identity within the Indian context. By tracing the intersections of colonial history, Hindu nationalism, and media imagery, the volume decodes how sexual cultures are constructed through the competing forces of law, religion, and power. Read more.

Acc. No: 102571

Call No: 306.70954 SEX-S

Immigration and Freedom

Author: Chandran Kukathas

Publisher: Princeton University Press

Overview: Chandran Kukathas' Immigration and Freedom reverse the traditional debate by arguing that the true threat to liberal democracy is not the migrant, but the apparatus of border control. He demonstrates that monitoring outsiders inevitably requires the surveillance and restriction of citizens, ultimately expanding state power to the point of defining identity and eroding the rule of law. Read more.

Acc. No: 102894

Call No: 304.8 KUK-I

The Seneca Effect: Why Growth is Slow, but Collapse is Rapid

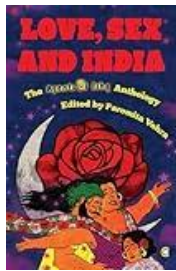

Author: Ugo Bardi

Publisher: Springer

Overview: Ugo Bardi's The Seneca Effect explores the "asymmetry of change" the principle that systems grow slowly but collapse with terrifying speed. By synthesizing system dynamics and Stoic philosophy, Bardi reveals how positive feedback loops drive complex structures toward ruin and provides a roadmap for managing the inevitable transitions of our global ecosystem. Read more.

Acc. No: 102694

Call No: 303.4 BAR-S

Love, Sex and India: The Agents of Ishq Anthology

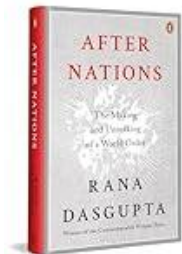

Editor: Paromita Vohra

Publisher: Context

Overview: Paromita Vohra's Love, Sex and India is a groundbreaking living archive of the Indian intimate experience, chronicling the subcontinental shift toward sex-positivity. By synthesizing desi slang, queer revelations, and raw accounts of desire, this anthology dismantles traditional taboos to map the evolving emotional landscape of modern India.

Acc. No: 102674, 102675

Call No: 306.70954 LOV-L

After Nations

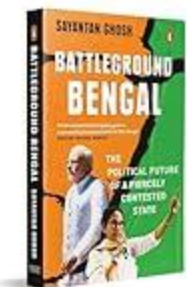

Author: Rana Dasgupta

Publisher: Viking

Overview: It's a sweeping diagnosis of the terminal crisis of the nation-state, tracing its history from European legal expansion to the rise of twenty-first-century tech-sovereigns. He argues that as national institutions succumb to debt and xenophobia, we must forge a new globalized conception of citizenship and economy to survive an ecologically fragile future.

Acc. No: 102888

Call No: 320.54 DAS-A

Battleground Bengal: The Political Future of a Fiercely Contested State

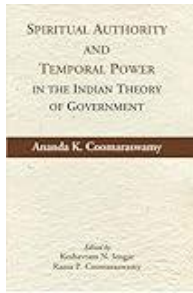

Author: Sayantan Ghosh

Publisher: Penguin Random House

Overview: It is a forensic analysis of the seismic shift in West Bengal's political landscape as it heads toward the 2026 Assembly Election. By examining the collision between TMC's grassroots populism and the BJP's rapid ascent, Ghosh uncovers the enduring role of identity, patronage, and political violence in shaping the state's future.

Acc. No: 102720

Call No: 320.95414 GHO-B

Spiritual Authority and Temporal Power in the Indian Theory of Government

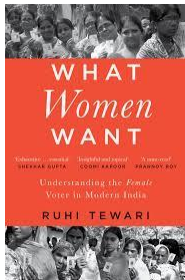

Author: Keshavram N. Iengar and Rama P. Coomaraswamy

Publisher: D.K. Printworld

Overview: This collection of A.K. Coomaraswamy's writings expounds the Indian theory of government based on textual sources such as the Brahmanas and the Rigveda. It vividly talks about the relationship between the spiritual and temporal power, paving the way for community welfare.

Acc. No: 102646

Call No: 320 COO-S

What Women Want: Understanding The Female Voter in Modern India

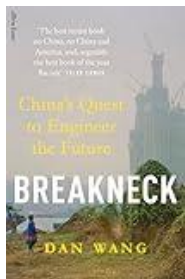

Author: Ruhi Tewari

Publisher: Juggernaut

Overview: It charts the historic transformation of the Indian female electorate from an invisible demographic to a decisive political juggernaut. Through two decades of reportage, Tewari analyses how kitchen economics, welfare politics, and independent agency are dismantling traditional patriarchal voting blocs.

Acc. No: 102671

Call No: 324.954 TEW-W

Breakneck: China's Quest to Engineer the Future

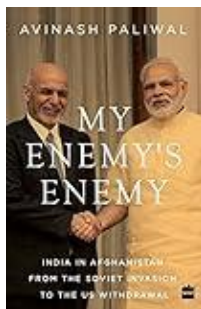

Author: Dan Wang

Publisher: Allen Lane

Overview: Dan Wang's Breakneck is a seminal comparison of the China versus the USA, detailing how physical infrastructure and bureaucratic stagnation define the current global rivalry. By blending economic analysis with boots-on-the-ground reportage, Wang argues that the survival of both superpowers depends on their ability to adopt the other's missing virtues: liberty and building.

Acc. No: 102663

Call No: 327.51073 WAN-B

My Enemy's Enemy: India in Afghanistan from the Soviet Invasion to the US Withdrawal

Author: Avinash Paliwal

Publisher: Harper Collins

Overview: It deconstructs the reductive Machiavellian view of Indo-Afghan relations, revealing a sophisticated internal debate between Indian "conciliators" and "partisans." By mining untapped archives, Paliwal demonstrates that New Delhi's primary driver is not merely checking Pakistan, but an enduring quest for a stable regional balance of power.

Acc. No: 102727

Call No: 327.540581 PAL-M

Digital Labour and Karl Marx

Author: Christian Fuchs

Publisher: Routledge Books

Overview: Christian Fuch provides a radical re-evaluation of the global tech economy, arguing that the free activity of social media users and the gruelling work of hardware miners are part of a unified circuit of capitalist exploitation. By applying Marxian value theory to the internet age, Fuchs reveals how big tech corporations extract profit from every "click," "like," and "post" we generate.

Acc. No: 102703

Call No: 335.4 FUC-D

One Stop

Author: Neha Mehta

Publisher: Penguin

Overview: a comprehensive autopsy of the Super App phenomenon, tracing its rise as a disruptive force in global FinTech. By analysing the cultural and regulatory divergence between East and West, Mehta illustrates how these all-in-one ecosystems are re-engineering the digital future toward total convenience and social inclusion.

Acc. No: 102672, 102673

Call No: 338.47004 MEH-O

Law and Evil Philosophy, Politics, Psychoanalysis

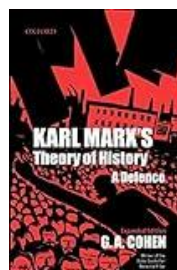

Editor: Ari Hirvonen, Janne Porttikivi

Publisher: Routledge

Overview: This interdisciplinary volume deconstructs the self-evident nature of "evil," mapping its evolution from Kantian radicalism to its modern role as a rhetorical and legal tool. By synthesizing philosophy, politics, and psychoanalysis, it exposes how law both confronts evil and risks becoming an instrument of it.

Acc. No: 102689

Call No: 340.1 LAW-L

Karl Marx's Theory of History: A Defence

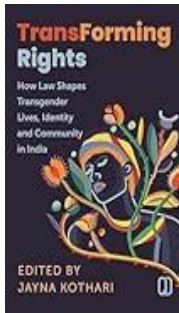

Author: G. A. Cohen

Publisher: Clarendon Press

Overview: This is the founding text of Analytical Marxism, applying rigorous Anglo-American philosophical techniques to defend historical materialism. By focusing on the primacy of forces of production, Cohen reconstructs Marx's theory as a functional explanation of social change that remains relevant despite the collapse of Soviet-style states.

Acc. No: 102690

Call No: 335.411 COH-K

Transforming Rights How Law Shapes Transgender Lives, Identity and Community in India

Editor: Kothari, Jayna

Publisher: Westlands books

Overview: It explores the stark disconnect between India's progressive legal frameworks for transgender autonomy and the persistent systemic violence and exclusion faced by the community. Through a multi-disciplinary lens, the collection analyses how constitutional promises must be translated into material access to education, livelihood, and social dignity.

Acc. No: 102721

Call No: 342.54087 TRA-T

On Killing: The Psychological Cost of Learning to Kill in War and Society

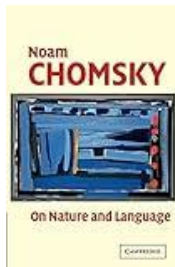

Author: Dave Grossman

Publisher: Little, Brown.

Overview: Dave Grossman's On Killing is a groundbreaking psychological study revealing the inherent human resistance to taking life and the intensive conditioning used by militaries to overcome it. It exposes the "devastating psychological cost" of bypassing this instinct, linking modern combat training to the rise of PTSD and escalating societal violence.

Acc. No: 102591

Call No: 355.001 GRO-O

On Nature and Language

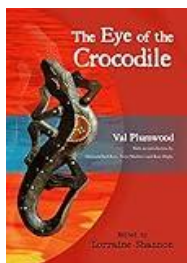

Author: Noam Chomsky

Publisher: Cambridge University Press

Overview: Noam Chomsky's on Nature and Language synthesize the Minimalist Program with neuroscience, framing language as a biological computational system inherent to the human brain. By bridging theoretical linguistics with the role of the intellectual, Chomsky provides a definitive roadmap for understanding the faculty of language as a natural object.

Acc. No: 102681

Call No: 401 CHO-O

The Eye of the Crocodile

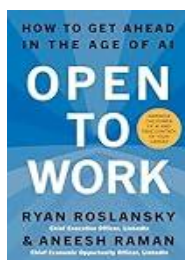

Author: Val Plumwood

Publisher: ANU Epress

Overview: The book is a profound philosophical meditation on human-nature relations, forged in the aftermath of her survival of a predatory attack. It challenges the illusion of mastery by centering the reality of humans as part of the food chain, advocating for an Eco philosophy that honours our shared vulnerability and kinship with the non-human world.

Acc. No: 102594

Call No: 591.53 PLU-E

Open to Work: How to Get Ahead in the Age of AI

Author: Aneesh Raman and Ryan Roslansky

Publisher: Harper Collins

Overview: Aneesh Raman and Ryan Roslansky's Open to Work is a definitive survival guide for the AI-driven labour market, utilizing LinkedIn's real-time data from over a billion professionals. The book advocates for a shift from static tasks to dynamic human capabilities, providing a concrete 30-60-90-day roadmap for professional longevity.

Acc. No: 102661

Call No: 658.4 ROS-H

Strategic intelligence for the knowledge economy

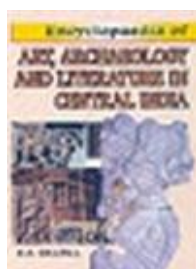

Author: McBreen, Brian

Publisher: Emerald Publishing

Overview: This multi-author volume, Strategic Intelligence for the Knowledge Economy, outlines the necessary shift from industrial-era analytical models to a framework centered on Knowledge Capital. It provides a conceptual model of eight critical factors designed to help organizations navigate the unique, non-linear dilemmas of the 21st-century economic environment.

Acc. No: 102585, 102367

Call No: 658.4012 MCB-S

Encyclopaedia of Art, Archaeology and Literature in Central India

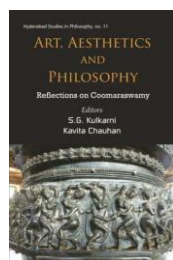

Author: R. K. Sharma

Publisher: Aryan Books International

Overview: It is a monumental reference cataloguing the cultural heritage of the region from prehistory to the 13th century. By synthesizing epigraphy, numismatics, and foreign travelogues, Sharma identifies critical gaps in Indian historiography while providing a roadmap for the next generation of researchers.

Acc. No: 102677, 102676

Call No: 703.09543 SHA-E

Art, Aesthetics and Philosophy: Reflections on Coomaraswamy

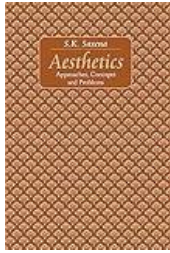

Author: S.G. Kulkarni and Kavita Chauhan

Publisher: DK Printworld

Overview: This book presents the varied reflections on Coomaraswamy's personality as a philosopher, art historian, art curator and his strong positioning against the colonial teachings of Western art historians and philosophers on India's art, civilization and culture, projecting an image of Indianness in every sphere.

Acc. No: 102604

Call No: 709.54 ART-A

Aesthetics: Approaches, Concepts and Problems

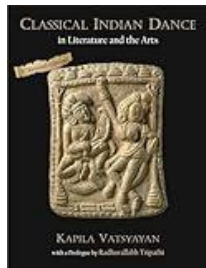

Author: S.K. Saxena

Publisher: DK Printworld

Overview: The book opens with a detailed essay on aesthetics as it is today, and explains the main ways in which contemporary aesthetic thinking is being done, the basic concepts of aesthetics and theories of art. A detailed account of the Indian theory of rasa is also included in the volume.

Acc. No: 102602

Call No: 780.954 SAX-A

Classical Indian dance in literature and the arts

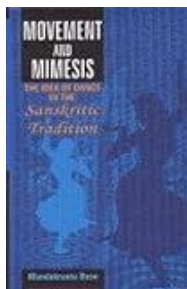

Author: Kapila Vatsyayan

Publisher: D.K. Printworld

Overview: It is a seminal study of the integrated aesthetic, revealing the inextricable links between movement, sculpture, music, and Sanskrit drama. By decoding the kinetic language found in ancient temple carvings and classical texts, Vatsyayan establishes dance as the central governing principle of Indian artistic expression.

Acc. No: 102609

Call No: 793.31954 VAT-C

Movement and Mimesis: The Idea of Dance in the Sanskrit Tradition

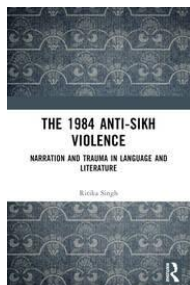

Author: Mandakranta Bose

Publisher: D.K. Printworld

Overview: The book contains precise characteristics of dances in India, fundamental questions about the nature of dancing, delving deep into its origin, extending over 2000 years. It makes an exhaustive comparative study, the first of its kind, tracing the growth, techniques and forms of dancing and its expansion by contact with peripheral regional styles, including the foreign ones.

Acc. No: 102627

Call No: 793.31954 BOS-M

The 1984 Anti-Sikh Violence: Narration and Trauma in Language and Literature

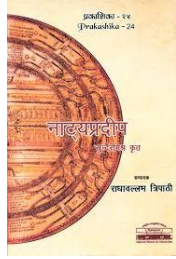

Author: Ritika Singh

Publisher: Routledge

Overview: Ritika Singh's The 1984 Anti-Sikh Violence is an interdisciplinary study of trauma, using neurobiology and sociology to decode the survival in fictional and non-fictional narratives. It moves beyond the trope of silence to explore the othering of the Sikh body, intergenerational trauma, and the specific, gendered politics of memory.

Acc. No: 102582

Call No: 820.9358 SIN-N

Natyapradipa of Sundaramishra

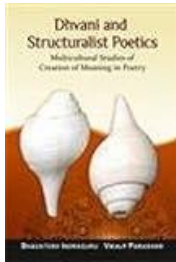

Author: Radhavallabh Tripathi

Publisher: D.K. Printworld

Overview: Natyapradipa covers all the topics of dramaturgy and with an all-encompassing range and inclusivity evinces a sound understanding of the structure of Sanskrit drama. It offers novel interpretations on several aspects of drama. Natyapradipa is one of the richest storehouses of references to several Sanskrit plays.

Acc. No: 102629

Call No: 891.2209 SUN-N

Dhvani and Structuralist Poetics: Multicultural Studies of Creation of Meaning in Poetry

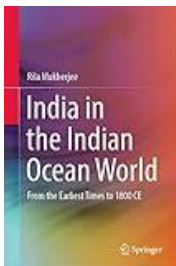

Author: Bhavatosh Indraguru and Vikalp Parashar

Publisher: D.K. Printworld

Overview: Bhavatosh Indraguru's Dhvani and Structuralist Poetics is a cross-cultural synthesis of Ānandavardhana's theory of "suggestion" and Saussurean linguistics.

Acc. No: 102613

Call No: 891.2109 IND-D

India in the Indian Ocean World: From the Earliest Times to 1800 CE

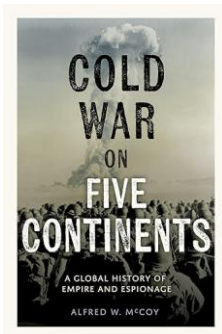

Author: Mukherjee, Rila

Publisher: Springer Nature

Overview: This expansive survey integrates archaeology, commerce, and theology to trace India's central role in the Indian Ocean world from antiquity to the dawn of empire. By mapping the circulation of people, faith, and objects, it redefines the ocean basin not as a barrier, but as a vibrant global arena for cross-cultural networking and nation-building.

Acc. No: 102736

Call No: 909.09824 MUK-I

Cold War on Five Continents: A Global History of Empire and Espionage

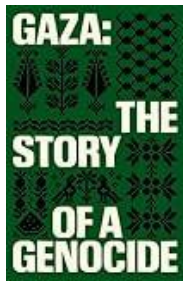

Author: Alfred W. McCoy

Publisher: Penguin Random House

Overview: Transforming battlegrounds in Africa, Asia, and Latin America into veritable hellscape, the surrogate wars of the Cold War era left behind a legacy of collective trauma and social conflict that have persisted into the present. In this ambitious work, Alfred W. McCoy uses a bottom-up, outside-in approach to offer an unexpected new perspective on the longest, most consequential conflict in modern history.

Acc. No: 102592

Call No: 909.825 MCC-C

Gaza: The Story of a Genocide

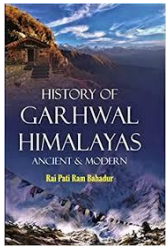

Author: Fatima Bhutto

Publisher: Verso

Overview: Gaza: The Story of a Genocide is a harrowing multidisciplinary archive of Palestinian survival and state-inflicted erasure. By weaving together frontline reportage, poetry, and art, it documents the generational trauma of "wounded children" and the systematic destruction of a people's future.

Acc. No: 102666

Call No: 956.94054 GAZ-G

History of Garhwal Himalayas: Ancient & Modern

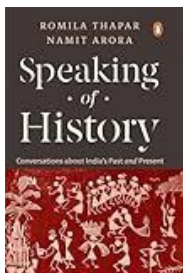

Author: Rai Pati Ram Bahadur

Publisher: Shubhi Publications

Overview: The book provides a comprehensive identity for this vital Himalayan corridor.

Acc. No: 102692

Call No: 954.203 BAH-H

Speaking of History: Conversations about India's Past and Present

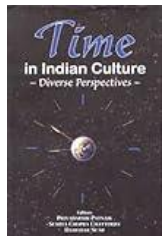

Author: Romila Thapar, Namit Arora

Publisher: Penguin Random House

Overview: In Speaking of History, Romila Thapar and Namit Arora engage in a vital dialogue on the historian's craft and the weaponization of India's past. By dissecting the intersections of caste, gender, and nationalism, they defend rigorous scholarship against political distortion, framing historical inquiry as a mirror for the contemporary self.

Acc. No: 102660

Call No: 954.05 THA-S

Time in Indian Culture: Diverse Perspectives

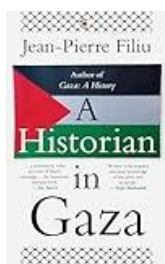

Author: Priyadarshi Patnaik, Suhita C. Chatterjee and Damodar Suar

Publisher: D.K. Printworld

Overview: The volume is a comprehensive collection of papers dealing with the philosophical, religious/spiritual, and linguistic aspects of time, and time as understood in Indian art, music and other aspects of culture.

Acc. No: 102649

Call No: 954 TIM-T

A Historian in Gaza

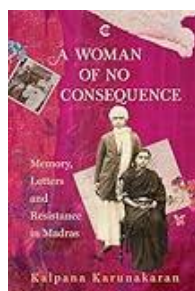

Author: Jean-Pierre Filiu

Publisher: Context

Overview: A Historian in Gaza is a harrowing, 33-day witness account of the Strip's devastation during the 2024 conflict. Blending the rigorous acuity of a historian with the intimate dialect of a humanitarian, Filiu documents a land betrayed, capturing the visceral struggle for dignity amidst total structural collapse.

Acc. No: 102883

Call No: 956.9405 FIL-H

Woman of No Consequence: Memory Letters & Resistance in Madras

Author: Kalpana Karunakaran

Publisher: Context

Overview: The book is a profound anthropology of the intimate, reconstructing the life of a Tamil Brahmin housewife who resisted 20th-century orthodoxy through the secret subversions of writing. By analysing her grandmother Pankajam's letters and semi-autobiographical stories, Karunakaran reveals a stubborn striving for self-actualization that mirrored the restless birth of the Indian nation.

Acc. No: 102885

Call No: 954.82 KAR-W

Free: Coming of Age at the End of History

Author: Lea Ypi

Publisher: W.W. Norton & Company

Overview: Lea Ypi's Free is a profound philosophical memoir that traces a childhood in Stalinist Albania. Through the eyes of a child becoming an adult, Ypi interrogates the gap between political ideology and lived reality, questioning whether true freedom is ever attainable under any system.

Acc. No: 102738

Call No: 949.6503 YPI-F

The Phoenix Rises: The Resurrection of Cochin

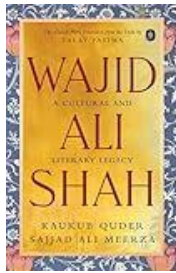

Author: Raghu Palat and Pushpa Palat

Publisher: W.W. Norton & Company

Overview: The Phoenix Rises is a cinematic reconstruction of the reign of Rama Varma IX (Shakthan Thampuran), the visionary ruler who rescued the Kingdom of Cochin from collapse. By dismantling feudal power structures and fostering trade, Thampuran laid the administrative and economic foundations for the modern state of Kerala. Read more.

Acc. No: 102718

Call No: 954.83 PAL-P

Wajid Ali Shah: A Cultural and Literary Legacy

Author: Kaukub Quder and Sajjad Ali Meerza
Publisher: Hachette

Overview: A definitive reclamation of the last King of Awadh, stripping away colonial caricatures of decadence to reveal a prolific polymath. It documents a visionary "Artist-King" whose innovations in music, drama, and architecture fundamentally shaped the soul of nineteenth-century Lucknow and Indian performance arts.

Acc. No: 102719

Call No: 954.031092 QUD-W

Stories the Fire Could Not Burn

Author: Hauzel, Hoihnu
Publisher: Speaking Tiger

Overview: An unfiltered witness to the Kuki-Zomi/Mizo experience during the Manipur crisis. By weaving harrowing personal accounts of displacement and violence with the complex historical antagonism between hill tribes and the Meitei, the work documents the permanent shifting of the state's social and geographic landscape.

Acc. No: 102725

Call No: 954.1705 HAU-S

Hunting the Falcon: Henry VIII, Anne Boleyn and the Marriage That Shook Europe

Author: John Guy and Julia Fox
Publisher: Bloomsbury

Overview: Fox's Hunting the Falcon is a rigorous archival reassessment of Henry VIII and Anne Boleyn, repositioning their marriage as a sophisticated geopolitical engine rather than a mere tragic romance. By uncovering Anne's "missing" years in France, the authors reveal a shrewd political strategist who nearly became joint sovereign before her own courtly innovations accelerated her demise. Read more.

Acc. No: 102726

Call No: 942.05 GUY-H

Blood and ruins: the great imperial war 1931-1945

Author: Richard Overy
Publisher: Penguin books

Overview: The book redefines World War II as the "Great Imperial War," the violent climax of a century of global territorial expansion. By centering the conflict on the desperate struggle to build and maintain empires, Overy reveals the war as a totalizing global event that ultimately destroyed the very imperial systems it was fought to preserve.

Acc. No: 102729

Call No: 940.53 OVE-B

Israel In Palestine: Jewish Rejection of Zionism

Author: Yakov M Rabkin

Publisher: Penguin books

Overview: It provides a profound theological and historical critique of Zionism from within the Jewish tradition. By distinguishing between the "community of believers" and the modern nation-state, Rabkin argues that the militarized return to the Land is antithetical to traditional Judaism and offers a path toward peace through the restoration of Jewish spiritual identity.

Acc. No: 102732

Call No: 940.53 RAB-I

Europe in the World from 1350 to 1650

Author: Rila Mukherjee

Publisher: Springer Nature

Overview: It is a comprehensive pedagogical bridge that traces the genesis of the modern West within a holistic global framework. By integrating political, intellectual, and social history, Mukherjee provides the essential conceptual tools to understand Europe's transformative transition from the medieval to the modern era.

Acc. No: 102734

Call No: 940.2 MUK-E

What is Modern Israel?

Author: Yakov M. Rabkin

Publisher: Pluto Press

Overview: In What is Modern Israel? Yakov M. Rabkin deconstructs the state's foundation as a product of European ethnic nationalism and colonial expansion rather than a religious culmination. By tracing the Protestant roots of Zionism and its sharp break from traditional Judaism, Rabkin challenges the conflation of Jewish identity with Israeli state advocacy.

Acc. No: 102733

Call No: 956.94 RAB-W

Beyond National Frames: South Asian Pasts and the World

Editor: Rila Mukherjee

Publisher: Primus Books

Overview: Rila Mukherjee's Beyond National Frames challenges the view of South Asian history by advocating for a transnational, borderless perspective. By reimagining the "dual nature" of sources as both archive and window, the volume reveals a mobile South Asia defined by cross-regional flows and Indian Ocean connections.

Acc. No: 102737

Call No: 954.0072 BEY-B